

The World Wide Weems

Our Top Family Travel Tips

1. Sign up for Global Entry, TSA, or Clear
2. Snacks are a quite kids best friend
3. If your traveling internationally with an infant, call ahead to get a seat compatible with a bassinet.
Bonus: These limited seats also come with extra leg room.
4. Use color coded packing cubes to keep everyones clothes seperated and organized.
5. Need a date night? Call ahead to your hotel and ask if they offer babysitting services. This is usually an extra charge so plan accordingly.
6. If you have young children, split your day up accordingly. Do your site seeing in the morning when crowds are smaller and kids are fresh. If your children nap, try and build that into your schedule and in the afternoon go to a park or childrens muesem.
7. Make sure your trip includes something fun for everyone
